County Wants $6,000,000 More Bond Issue.

It seems a case of bad judgment for the county authorities to ask the people to vote $6,000,000 of a bond issue on themselves at this critical time. True, the purposes are good, but they can wait until times are easier and prices for building within reason. We need that branch county hospital but the $3,000,000 asked for to build it will not go as far as $1,000,000 a few years hence. When all of the bigger business concerns stop erecting new buildings, and the best-paying investments halt at the frightful high price of material and construction, it is time for the city and county to halt also. There have been, and are now, many calls upon the taxpayers, and the strictest of economy should be exercised in all public affairs, until prices are within reason. You will be asked to vote on this bond issue next Tuesday November 6, and you should plump "No" to the entire scheme unless you feel able to pay higher taxes, higher rents and higher prices for everything.

ENGLEWOOD HAPPENINGS

Parents Careless About Their Daughters.

Columns are printed, and pulpits ring with eloquent appeals, but the careless parents continue to allow the heedless girls too much liberty and are only brought to realize their mistake when confronted with the tragedy of a ruined child, and a broken-hearted mother. The authorities are trying to do their duty now, we believe, but it isn't safe to allow the city, county or state to have full control, as you surrender your rights as a parent. Cabarets, dance halls and back rooms, not of saloons only, but confectionery stores and other places, are a menace to the unthinking girls who visit them, and only the careful watch of parents will prevent their ruin. Englewood is in a great measure free from these objectionable and dangerous places, still some of them exist in our midst, and on our borders are many of them. Don't trust the police to keep your girl straight, lookout for her yourself, and this may also apply to your boy. There are altogether too many young people allowed to roam the streets at night unprotected, and were we to publish a small number of the sad cases brought to our attention, our columns would look like a police record. Keep your girls at home nights, or know surely where they are, for even the best of girls are known to deceive their easy-going parents in such matters, and seeking for a bit of excitement, or a glimpse of "high life," get a fatal taste of "low life" that spells ruin and death.

Mr. A. R. Sullivan of Iowa Falls, Ia., visited his son, Harry of 6715 Stewart Ave. for the week-end, returning home Monday evening. Mr. Sullivan was also a guest of C. F. VanWie and family of 330 Normal Pkwy. during his stay here.

The decorators are busy all of this week on the interior of the chapel on the corner of Cunningham's new building at Normal Blvd. and Englewood Ave. The work is of such a character that it requires time to develop the detail and exact tones sought for. The windows will be placed this week, and are elegant in design to complete the ensemble and make it as Mr. Cunningham has ordered, the finest private chapel in the land. The storerooms and offices are completed and are the best lighted and most attractive in town, and will be occupied by lines of trade appropriate and suitable to the elegance and style in which they are fitted.

Englewood Commercial and Civic Association Lunches.

The luncheon Wednesday at the Congregational church was well attended and enjoyed. Doctor Fritsch was introduced and made a few cheery remarks identifying himself with the association as "a business man just off 63d St., but just as near 63d St. as 63d St. was to him." The feature of the day was the stirring remarks of Lieut. Frederic Kensell, in charge of the United States marine recruiting service in Chicago. Lieutenant Kensel aroused the patriotism of everyone. He is a forceful speaker whose heart is in his work, and a patriotic son of patriots. He urged enlistment in the marines as a select branch of the service and announced that he would open a recruiting station at 63d and Halsted Sts. next week. The particular business of next Wednesday's meeting will be the consideration of a consolidation or amalgamation of the Commercial association and the Englewood club. The means and methods to that end will be threshed out this week, and all the members will be pleased to learn the how of it.

New Paving a Necessity on 63rd Street.

The day in which the paving on 63rd St. can be repaired is passed, and all there is to it, is that new paving must be laid between Wentworth Ave. and Halsted St. The patching has been so frequent that little of the original brick paving is left, and what there is of it is so rough and worn that it is worse than none. The material to be used should be investigated; whether brick, creosoted block or concrete with asphaltum top is used there will be little difference in price, but a substantial material should be used. Asphalt is not strong enough to stand the heavy traffic and besides is too slippery in frosty or wet weather. Creosoted blocks are smooth and if carefully selected the blocks last a long time, but well-laid brick is the best if only good-glazed, hard-burned brick is used. And it should also enter into consideration to have the street railway company relay their tracks in the heaviest steel rails before the paving is placed, and every property owner compelled to make their gas, electric and water connections so that the paving may not be torn up immediately. A majority of the property owners are said to favor the work but are not decided as to the material to be used.

15th Annual Reunion and Banquet of Old Settlers.

Masonic Temple was monopolized by about 200 of the old settlers of Englewood last Thursday night. A happy reception and reunion preceded the banquet and there were many renewals of old acquaintences of the boys and girls of half a century ago, and some of the stories told of staid matrons and business men were really humorous. Old schoolmates dug up old memories, and the twinkle in eyes brought a response known only to old people who have not met in many years. President "Benny" Wilson officiated in a happy vein, harp solos by Mr. A. T. Poulson were appropriate and welcome, the readings of Mrs. Ra Erick Bartlett as well as the old-time songs of Mrs. H. D. McClellan were well received. Harry Bartruff brought down the house by a few funny stories and Superintendent of Schools John D. Shoop made a hit with reminiscences of recent years.

A warm reception was given Mrs. Hugh Chittick, an eighty-five-year-old young lady, who made a few remarks most appropriate and cordial. Mrs. Malvin, Mr. D. R. Tipton, the veteran railroad man; Miss Anna Hunter, Lou C. Hogan and Dr. C. H. Lovewell responded to the call and brought up reminiscences of bygone days. It was a very happy occasion.

The reports of the officers showed careful investment of the funds of the association, and the necrologist's report of the deaths of old comrades and friends was received standing, and as Capt. E. R. Lewis read the old familiar family names, many an unbidden tear dimmed the eye of the good old friends.

The officers for the ensuing year are Homer Tinsman, president; Stephen B. Maynard, the original secretary, succeeds himself as he should, and Vernon E. Nichols will handle the vast finances of the old boys and girls. With faltering voices but cheery warm hearts the assemblage dispersed to the strains of "Auld Lang Syne."

War Registration for Women.

The week of November 5 will be woman's registration week. Every woman over sixteen years of age is requested to register that there may be a war census of the woman power of the United States. There will be a house-to-house canvas. Will every housewife receive the women with courtesy and give them the valuable information for service? "Do your bit" by assisting them. The Second district of the Thirty-second ward will have their place of registration at 427 66th Pl, open during the day and two hours each evening during the week for those who are employed during the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Conway of 451 62d St. leave this week for an all-winter tour of the Pacific coast states.

ENGLEWOOD THEATRE

Pat White, the whirlwind Irish comedian who next week will be seen at the Englewood theatre with "His Gaiety Girls," is known to all who know him personally as a good sportsman. His love of the American thoroughbred is very strong and he is fond of horse racing, not in its present commercialized condition so much as in the condition it was when it was in reality "the sport of kings."

White is himself the owner of a fine race horse, Leonalda, whose name is frequently seen among the entries at the various big race tracks near New York. The comedian has a great fondness for this animal and his various turf victories are a source of great pride to him. This love of the race track, which is inherent in White, has found its way into his present production, for "Casey at the Derby's" first act is founded on race-track environment and White has written into it a virile element which smacks of his love for the American thoroughbred and gruelling turf contests.

"I get so enthused," he says, "that it seems to me I am following this pastime at the race course and I forget that I am in a theatre and only acting the part of the play. All the time my brain is filled with pictures of contests I have seen Leonalda win and I feel as if any second I would see that grand old race horse tearing up to the wire and will see her number thrown out, as winner from the judges' stand. Just show me those jockey colors and I am there with all the atmosphere of the real race track scene."

EMPRESS THEATRE

"How do they do it at the price?" is the constant query of Empress theatre patrons. Every week and twice every week the entire bill is changed, and it is difficult to chose between them as to which is the best bill. Manager Harry Mitchell is up in his business, and as soon as a real headliner is discovered Harry goes gunning for it, and it is very seldom indeed that he does not get it. See the bill this week, and you will know what we mean when we say what a good show it is.

Mr. Mitchell's long acquaintance with the big men on all circuits enables him to catch them going and coming, East or West, and many open dates are booked for the Empress that the dollar houses would be glad to book. Hereafter the old policy of matinees daily will rule, and the old price of ten cents, a thin dime, for admission is what none of the other managers can fathom and ask: "How does he manage it?" Well, that is what the proprietors pay for, his management, and he does put it over every week.

The Empress has been renovated and prettily decorated, every corner and cranny swept and cleaned, garnished with new paint and gilding so that it shines as bright as a soldier's medal. Don't make a mistake when you want an hour or two of real amusement. Hit the trail for the Empress and keep abreast of the times in all the best stage stuff. None of the old-time, small-town acts get on the stage here. The act must be good and new and unquestionable in every way. It is never a cheap show, only cheap prices.

The great beauty of the Empress is the wonderful ventilating system by which it may be easily cooled and heated always with pure fresh air, the same system, in fact, as is used in the best hospitals. Remember the Empress when you are booking your best girl for an engagement. It is sure to please her as well as yourself.

Optimistic Thought.

Discernment and prudence are the best of prophets.

The Thrills of Youth.

After all, the joys of youth are fairly well distributed between the sexes and, while a girl does not know the thrill that comes when one gets into one's first pair of long pants, though even that may fall to her lot before long now, on the other hand a boy doesn't know what it is to be a girl and walk around town with a soldier in uniform where the other girls can see.—Ohio State Journal.

LINDEN PHOTODROME

Friday, November 2—Irene Hunt in "The Stainless Barrier," the story of a southern girl who saves wayward brother from gallows by forswearing honor. Which is more sacred, a woman's honor or a man's life? To get the answer don't miss Friday. Also Burton Holmes' Travel pictures and a Victor Moore comedy.

Saturday, November 3—Virginia Pearson in "Thou Shalt Not Steal." Was this woman right? To save herself from misery and her brother from disgrace she steals $10,000 he borrowed from her suitor. It is a viril American photoplay based on the Seventh Commandment, The Animated Weekly and a good comedy.

Sunday, November 4—Winifred Allen in "The Man-Hater." The story of the girl who found that all men are not like the one she knew. Also Keystone comedy. Great show!

Monday and Tuesday, November 5-6—Clara Kimball Young in "Magda." Greater than "The Common Law," "The Price She Paid" and "The Easiest Way." "Magda" far surpasses anything she has ever done before. It's a gripping drama of the home in which a young girl's youth and dreams are sacrificed to the arrogance of an unreasonable parent. It's a great lesson for every mother and father to learn. So don't miss this. Remember it's Miss Young's greatest picture.

Wednesday and Thursday, November 7-8—Jane Cowl in "The Spreading Dawn." Also Marie Dressler in "The Scrub Lady." Miss Dressler will be well remembered for her great work in "Tillie's Punctured Romance."

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

"Doc" White is doing things at the Marlowe Hippodrome and a glance over the program of this week will convince one that he has struck the vein of amusement that Englewood people like. The excellent houses at the Marlowe each night is a tribute alike to the excellent talent engaged and to the versatile "Doc's" ability in picking them. We have all seen "movies" that reminded one of a funeral, and others alleged to be funny that were simply agonizing in their primitiveness and gaucherie. This is the kind you won't see at the Marlowe and the vaudeville acts are always the newest and best. With a big string of the best houses the management can afford to book attractions that smaller houses that play a lone hand, can't afford to put on. It is the policy of this popular house to learn of all the newest on the vaudeville stage and then book it. The price is always an after consideration and the result is they really have what they advertise—"first-class vaudeville"—at every performance.

A feature of the Marlowe is the cleanliness of the program, no questionable acts are allowed, no profanity or smut is allowed to go over the lights and women and children are as carefully considered as in their own homes or churches. Amusement, clean and fresh, is their specialty and the best humor does not need smut to make it good.

The patrons of the Marlowe appreciate the efforts of Mr. White and are showing it by their patronage, and an empty seat is as big a curiosity as a white black-bird, while the big play house will comfortably seat more people than any house in this part of the city. Moral: Become a Marlowe patron, try it once and you will be sure to become a regular.

Get "Copy" In, in Time.

All "copy," advertisements and other, must be received at this office by Wednesday night at the latest, and preferably before noon of Wednesday if special position is desired. We go to press at seven o'clock Thursday morning and the forms are locked at that time. The rest of the day is consumed in press work and preparing the papers for the mails to reach the readers early Friday morning, and we cannot receive copy later than Wednesday under any circumstance. We are sorry each week to have to refuse good matter, but we must set a time, and it is as above.

What He Prosecuted.

Difficult Language.

An intelligent Frenchman was studying the English language. "When I discovered that if I was tied I was fast, if I spent too freely I was fast, and that not to eat was to fast, I was discouraged. But when I came across the sentence, 'the first one won one guinea prize,' I was tempted to give up trying to learn English."

Local and Personal News of Auburn Park, Gresham Brainerd and the South

For Our Soldier Boys.

A soldiers' and sailors' benefit will be given by St. Leo's court Friday evening at the conservatory, 78th and Emerald Ave. It will be in the form of a penny social. Many beautiful articles have been sent in and all will be sold at prices attractive for holiday gifts.

The domestic science booth committee have been working all summer and have a splendid assortment of jells, jams, preserves and canned goods, besides home-made bread, cake and candies. The ladies interested in the fancy goods have been sewing and embroidering for several weeks, as also those in charge of the utility booth.

Several of the ladies have sons and brothers at the front and appreciate how acceptable this fund will be for Christmas cheer, as well as the necessities of camp life.

Mrs. Mary B. Finan is general chairman, assisted by members of St. Leo's court under the following chairmen: Mesdames James Barth and C. Perrie, fancy goods; M. Boland and M. Reardon, refreshments; M. Tighe and M. A. Lamy, utility; Otto Miller and D. Quan, candy; A. Reilly and Fred Raphael, domestic science; Miss Anne Boyth, art; Mis C. Meaghre, parcel post.

The Gresham improvement association held an interesting meeting last night at the Seventh Presbyterian church.

Mrs. John P. Heinlein died at her home 7954 Green St. Monday and her funeral occurred Thursday, burial being at Mt. Greenwood cemetery.

Jane Anna Rugg died at her late residence, 7504 Stewart Ave., Monday, and her funeral will occur at noon today at Lenox, Ill., where the remains will be taken.

Calumet-Auburn Park Parent-Teacher Associaeion.

OPEN TUESDAY, THURSDAY AND SATURDAY EVENINGS

Big Patriotic Rally.

On Friday night, November 2, the Comfort and Aid association of District 75, National army, which includes 30 precincts of the Thirty-second ward, will hold a patriotic meeting to which all public-spirited citizens are cordially invited, for the purpose of furthering the interests of the boys who have gone to war from that district. This takes in both volunteers and conscripted men. Many of the women folk have taken up the work of supplying sweaters, sox and wristlets to the soldiers and sailors and this association is formed for the purpose of seeing that none of our fighting men shall be overlooked. Excellent speakers, including our two aldermen—Fisher and Rea—will address the meeting and a musical program will make it worth while to attend. So turn out, everybody and show the boys that we are with them to the ultimate finish.

Other speakers at the 75th District rally tonight are Internal Revenue Collector Julius Smietanka, former member of the Board of Education; Mrs. Louis J. Behan, public administrator, and Attorney LeRoy Hackett. The Civic Music club of Hamilton Park will sing part songs and Miss Helen Falk will appear in several piano numbers. Also Miss Helen Emmart is down for a reading. Miss Lumem Jacques and Mr. Jack Brennan will entertain with songs.

Why Not Avail Yourself of Library Privileges?

Have you a library card, and are you using the Hiram Kelly library, 62nd St. and Normal Blvd.? The library belongs to you, you support it, why don't you use it?

To become a user of the library, walk right in, step up to the desk, and ask for an application. Write on it your name and address. No charge? Not a cent. No red tape? Not one inch.

Your library offers you: Information on any subject, books to read at home for pleasure and profit, telephone service for answering questions, new novels, and the latest magazines, all free; airy reading rooms, courteous and efficient attendants. Come in and get acquainted. See list of latest books received in the Englewood Times every issue.

OUR WANT COLUMN

Is the best medium of reaching people in the South part of the city, and our rate of one cent a word is exceptionally low, but we must insist that all such ads be paid for in advance and either brought to the office or sent by mail as we cannot afford to make bills and send collectors for same. This applies to everyone whether you are a friend to the editor or office boy, and we will positively make no exceptions, so please do not kick if your request to violate this rule is refused.

Mrs. C. H. Hubbell of 9322 Winchester Ave. has been visiting relatives at North Adams, Mass.

Miss Mildred Lewin of 8558 Green St., who has been visiting in Dayton, O., has returned home.

William E. Keys died at his home, 8014 Sangamon St., last Saturday, and his funeral occurred Monday afternoon; burial at Mt. Hope cemetery under auspices of Masonic orders.

Owen Monahan died Saturday at his home, 7604 Emerald Ave., and his funeral occurred Monday morning, services at St. Leo's church and burial at Mt. Olivet.

We are always happy to publish news items from our friends in Auburn and Gresham, but they should be signed. Each week we have to send a bunch to the waste paper morgue for this neglect.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Mealiff of 8040 Green St. have been visiting the soldier boys at Houston, Tex., and took with them numerous presents from the folks at home. All of the Auburn boys are well and happy.

Mr. Arthur Nimms, head of the notions department of Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co. wholesale, occupied the pulpit at the Christian church last Sunday while the regular minister, C. G. Kindred, was attending the national convention of the Christian churches at Kansas City, Mo.

Several cases of vicious dogs biting children have been reported in this neighborhood. Harold Drain of 7346 Union Ave. was so badly injured that he was taken to Auburn hospital for treatment, and Mary Lillikies of 500 82nd St. was a victim of William Dolan's dog on Vincennes Ave. last week.

Had Seen the Statues.

"Mother," said little Bobby, "do you know what they do with presidents when they get through with them?" "No I don't," replied his mother. "They freeze them stiff and put them up in parks," replied he.

Games are scheduled at Hamilton for Saturday, November 3, with Davis Square and Saturday, November 10, with Sherman Park. Lineup of the Hamilton team: Cora Larson, captain; Bessie Bierer, Irma Clark, Irene Eggert, Frances Langquist, Josephine Sibley, Bernice Sweeney, Lillian Tatro, Anne Tomney, Marie Linderborg, substitute.

The dancing in "The Trial of Tom-Tom," which will be presented at Central Music hall under the direction of Miss Irene Skinner of the Centralizing School of Music, will be given by members of the gymnasium classes.

SOCCER.

Last week's games were called off on account of the rain.

The 110-pound soccer tournament will be held at Hamilton Saturday, November 3. Games will be played by Palmer and Calumet, Hamilton and Ogden.

The 90-pound teams of Hamilton and Ogden will play at Ogden Park tomorrow (Saturday).

To Gas Consumers Still Using Only Flat Flame Lights—

The candle power of all gas in Chicago was reduced on October 1st, as provided by City Ordinance. This has cut down the volume of light from flat flame burners. Therefore, to all gas consumers who are wholly dependent upon flat flame burners for illumination, this company continues to offer—

FREE — Two Junior Mantle Lights

—burner, mantle and chimney complete, and installed without charge.

One JUNIOR light will deliver nearly three times as much light as you ever got from a flat flame burner and use less than half as much gas.

Write us immediately—or fill out this coupon and turn it in where you regularly pay your gas bill—and it will receive prompt attention.

The contractors promise to have the Lindblom High school so far completed by next fall that at least a part of the building may be used for classes.

Money to loan, any amount, on diamonds, watches, jewelry, at low rates. Strictly confidential. Sandacks, 6217 Halsted St.—(Adv.)

The new lighting system is causing the streets to be torn up in a messy manner, but it will be all right when the lights are in and blazing.

All of the unimproved streets between Garfield Blvd. and 59th St. west from Ashland Ave are to be paved early next summer.

Oak index card cases complete, box, cards and indices at special price of 45 cents, at Frank Kellner's, 443 W. 63d St., just east of post office.—(Adv.)

The festive holdup man and the burglar have been plying their trades vigorously in the South and West ends of the town. Buy a Liberty bond; they can't use them if they do steal them.

Several names are mentioned for alderman in the populous district west of Ashland Ave. and north of 63d St. This territory has never had a representative in the city council. Why?

We have had several complaints of the clothing and valuables being stolen from the lockers in Ogden Park. There is large enough police force in the park to at least protect the lockers, and the authorities should put them on duty.

Another 40 per cent call for drafted men will be made this month, and quite a large number of our young men will be included in it.

On account of an unusual rush of local news matter this week our serial story will be omitted.

The engagement is announced of Gertrude, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gendon of 6046 Sangamon St., to Mr. Isador Offenberg of Hyde Park.

A start has been made in elevating the Pan Handle tracks at Garfield Blvd.; it is hoped they will be connected up with the south section next season.

In the ads of the Stuckey Prescription drug store will be found an interesting series of advices of "The Evewells." Read them and heed the painters.

We would like very much to secure a lady correspondent for the west of Halsted district that can devote a few hours of each week to gathering the neighborhood news.

Sionillis of Englewood

On Saturday, October 20, 1917, the Sionillis of Englewood entertained each other at the Sionillis' clubrooms, 1009 W. 63rd St. After a relished "Rockfordized" meal, in which the Wentworth Quartette took part, Ed McKenna, "sergeant at arms," started the ball of entertainment rolling. Each of the 75 members present took a whack at it, of which, a few seemed to be professionals. H. J. Dubbs, the club's secretary, headed the "orator's" role, where Herman Hunckee held the highest note on the bank of popular airs, while the Wentworth quartette kept all in tune.

It will cost you three cents instead of two to write your girl hereafter.

William Walker, formerly of 6328 Morgan St., has moved to Auburn Park, 7748 Morgan St.

The Boy Scouts of America, troop 619, had a part in the Liberty loan parade Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Sharp of 6154 Paulina St. entertained six jackies from the Great Lakes Naval station last Sunday, October 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Garber of Lancaster, Pa., arrived Monday evening and will visit Mr. and Mrs. George Botts of 6616 Bishop St.

Paulina St. is to have a new moving-picture house, one of the finest in the city, so it is said. It will be erected in the vicinity of 67th St., next summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Zander and daughters, 6355 Wood St., were the guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Zander, 5920 Lowe Ave.

Everyone in the West district will be happy when the Lindblom High school is opened to receive pupils, which will be the opening of the school year next September.

We hope that at least a fair share of the vehicle tax fund will be used in this part of the city next year. The past year we received nothing but promises.

Mrs. Mary A. Doty, mother of Leslie W. Doty, died at his home, 6936 Morgan St., Tuesday, aged seventy-nine years. Her funeral occurred Thursday at Zion, Ill.

A United States marine recruiting station will be opened at 63d and Halsted Sts. this week to secure some select men for this special service. Lieutenant Kensell was out today looking up a location.

The "stork special" dropped in on Mr. and Mrs. Albert Taxti of Windsor Park Friday evening leaving a brand-new boy to be named James Albert. Grandpa and Grandma Jones are wearing the happiest of smiles.

The Golgatha Young People's society are going to hold their third annual entertainment at the church basement, 67th and Lincoln streets, November 14 and 15. Tickets 15 cents. Everybody welcome.

It is about time to begin selecting desirable candidates for aldermen for the spring election. Honest, live men should be chosen, whose business will not interfere with their paying some attention to city affairs besides drawing the $3,500 salary.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Fyanes entertained with a dinner and cards Sunday at their home, S. 5th Ave., in honor of the Misses Lily Wunderlich, Laura Schrader and Mr. John Lerner. Piano and vocal selections rendered by Mr. Lerner were thoroughly enjoyed.

Charles Grons, Jr. of 1851 63rd St. is now in New York building airplanes for Uncle Sam. Last Wednesday he flew over New York city dropping Liberty loan literature. He was only 11,000 feet high. Be easy, Charles, you might fall out.

Fred C. Williams of 6517 Halsted St. is about the happiest man in town since Mrs. Williams presented him with a pretty little daughter, to be known as Adelaide Elizabeth, in honor of both grandmothers, who arrived Tuesday morning. The baby arrived at the home of Mrs. Williams' sister, Mrs. Swishel, 1049 68th St.

Winter is upon us, and Peoria St. as well as others in this part of town are in very bad condition. Promises were made that they would be cared for during the summer, but evidently Alderman Pegram has a bad memory, and the people will have a hard road to travel all through the winter, especially in the Thirty-first ward.

The engagement is announced of Mr. C. A. Londelius, Jr., of 6325 Peoria St., and Miss Margaret Rehling of 40th St. and Prairie Ave. "Chris" is manager of the C. A. Londelius & Son's garage, as well as of the hardware and building material firm of the same name. He is a wide-awake young business man, popular and a patriotic hustler. Miss Rehling is the daughter of one of the oldest families in Hyde Park and a most estimable young lady, who will be welcomed to Englewood as a valuable acquisition to younger society circles. It is understood the marriage will occur about Thanksgiving, and we anticipate by wishing them all joy and happiness.

The many Englewood friends of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Steward will be pained to hear of the untimely death by pneumonia of their young daughter, Geraldine, twenty years old, which occurred at St. Margaret's hospital, Hammond, Ind., Saturday morning, October 13. She was a beautiful character, loved by all and will be deeply missed and mourned, and to deepen the sadness she was to be married soon. Mr. and Mrs. Steward were for many years residents of Englewood. The young lady being born in the neighborhood of 59th St. and Englewood Ave. The funeral was held from her late home, 406 Sommer St., to All-Saints church, Hammond, where high mass was held, thence to Calvary cemetery, West Gary, Ind. Besides her parents she left three sisters and two brothers to mourn her loss. May her soul rest in peace.

News from the Ridge

Morgan Park, Washington Heights, Beverly Hills, Walden, Longwood and the Southern Suburbs

Mrs. Pauline F. Palmer of 9521 Bishop St. is our representative in this locality and may be reached for news, ads or subscriptions by telephoning, Beverly 2097.

The Heino family, 1749 Steuben St., have moved to 86th and Carpenter Sts.

Mrs. E. R. Goble of 10411 Longwood Drive has been appointed secretary for the Western Golf association.

On account of an unusual rush of local news matter, this week our serial story will be omitted.

Mrs. J. H. Johnson, 1222 105th St., entertained the Osceola club of Pullman on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Neal, 10515 Racine Ave., has been appointed registrar in her district.

Mrs. William Murray, 1045 104th Pl., is able to use her hand again, which was severely injured some time ago.

Miss Geneva Terwilliger, 10318 Prospect Ave., spent several days with Mrs. J. G. Earl of the West side.

Mr. A. G. Hough, 10605 Wood St., is building a brick bungalow at 10717 S. Wood St.

Mme. Du Pont, formerly of Morgan Park but now living in Milwaukee, left on Monday for Minneapolis, where she will sing at three concerts.

The Le Roy Cook family, 9805 Vanderpoel Ave., leave tomorrow to spend the winter months in Ocean Springs, Miss.

It is very important that our women register next week. It is hoped that our patriotic housewives will deem this duty a pleasure.

Chickasaw Camphre Girls ushered at the Ridge Patriots league meeting, and they looked very stunning in their white middies, blue skirts and red ties.

Mrs. S. Simon, 104th and Aberdeen Sts., entertained the Ladies' Aid society of the Racine Avenue M. E. church.

Miss Emma Dickey, 9940 Morgan St., has returned from St. Bernard's hospital, very much improved in health. We hope she will continue so.

Our boys and girls were very much delighted with Tuesday's snow and the meatless menu was forgotten while engaged in some of this early winter's frolics.

Mrs. W. H. Murray, 1045 104th Pl., entertained four friends last week. Mrs. J. Finley, Mrs. F. Wickman of Humboldt Park, Mrs. Blake and Mrs. Patterson from Grand Crossing were the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Bennett, 11423 Hermosa Ave. invited a number of friends to a Halloween party on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Bennett is a delightful hostess and her guests usually have a pleasant time.

The junior members of the Ridge Woman's club will meet with Miss Marion Spach, 10335 Longwood drive, on November 6. At present the girls are interested in making garments for the Belgium refugee children and scrap books.

Freshmen class of Crane Junior college has elected its officers and is planning a pleasant and social season. A dance was given at Douglas park refectory on last Friday. A new glee club has been formed, and Miss Helen Andrews of Morgan Park has been elected vice president.

Miss Geraldine Reger of Beverly Ave. entertained Chickasaw Camp Fire Girls at a Halloween party on Wednesday evening. It was a masquerade affair and the girls all had a "glorious time." The girls acted as ushers at the Ridge Patriotic league meeting on Tuesday evening.

Miss Maude Kirk, 9544 Longwood drive, entertained for Miss Kempthorne, national field secretary of Camp Fire work on October 26. The guardians who are interested in our community camp, Pepacton, were also Miss Kirk's guests.

On Wednesday the Alice L. Barnard school enjoyed a patriotic afternoon. Talks on "Patriotism" and "Food Conservation" were very welcomely received by the audience. The school's activity in the Liberty loan is very wonderful, and a present showing of $21,850 has been credited to both pupils and teachers.

Ridge Patriotic league held another one of their stirring meetings on Tuesday evening at Valentine's hall and a large and appreciative audience joined with Mr. Harry Dunham in singing "The Star-Spangled Banner" as an appropriate opening song. Mr. Munneke and Mr. Shaver, both gave short talks on the aims of the organization and what had been accomplished thus far. Ex-Judge Cutling was the speaker and gave a delightful outline of our early history and the honorable freedom won by our ancestors. In justice to them our country must keep the standards set and follow in their footsteps to achieve lasting and democratic freedom. Captain Harrowell's Longwood company were guests of honor.

At the Arts and Craft exhibit of the Morgan Park Woman's club, Miss Wilcox's room of the Vanderpoel school had an exhibit of their Red Cross work. The garments were all made from old material, showing what children can do without much outlay of money. Baby caps, skirts, stocking-caps, blankets, bootees and shoes were displayed. Some of the girls had knitted scarfs, helmets and thumbless mittens. The boys had made ration heaters or trench candles. The exhibit will also be shown at the Third district Arts and Crafts exhibition, to be held in the gymnasium building of the Chicago Normal school on October 31, November 1 and November 2. This surely speaks well for our Ridge boys and girls, and their interesting teacher.

Morgan Park Congregational church is planning a bazaar for November 22.

Sergt. William Shultz of Rockford spent the week-end with his family, 9713 Wood St.

Mr. Gust Adler, 10504 Racine Ave., received a glad welcome from his many friends when he came home from Rockford for a week-end visit.

Mrs. William Schultz, 9713 Wood St., returned from a pleasant two weeks spent with Mrs. Epperson of Hamilton Park.

Masters Donald and Howard Polzin, 1672 105th St., were very happy last Sunday when their soldier uncle, Mr. Paul Schultz, came from Rockford to visit them.

Last Friday Mrs. C. Linquist of Steuben gave a Halloween party in honor of her sister, Mrs. Clarence Woodruff of Tygh Valley, Ore. The decorations were very beautiful and in keeping with the occasion.

Mrs. Ida Brockway, 951 95th St., died at Wilmette hospital after many months of suffering. Funeral services were held Tuesday from St. Paul's Episcopal church, 50th and Dorchester Ave., and interment at Mount Greenwood.

Attention, Women!

The registration time has arrived. The president of the United States calls the women of Illinois. Last June he called the men and met an almost unanimous response.

Women are as patriotic as men. They expect to face responsibility with the same firmness, the same loyalty as the men.

This implies no obligation on their part to do it. The government does not expect to force any woman to do work she does not want to do.

We all hope there will be no need; that war will be ended shortly. But the best way to shorten the war is by being fully prepared to carry on a long one. The women are only asked to give service if they feel they can.

During the coming week of registration let every woman register and then constitute herself a committee of one to urge her neighbors to register.

Every public school is a place of registration. The Hiram Kelly library is also a center. The Community club, under the direction of Mrs. H. D. Mann, is in charge there.

Mrs. David Roller has taken charge of Precinct 19 and will register that precinct at her home, 511 60th St.

Women who work during the day may register at the Lewis-Champlin school, 62d St. and Princeton Ave, Tuesday and Thursday evenings from seven to nine o'clock.

The Hoover cards are to be handled with the registration. Mrs. L. Z. Gemer, conservation chairman, is in charge. We hope Mr. Hoover will need a special filing cabinet for the Thirty-first ward.

A meeting of workers will be held Friday, November 2, at 8 p. m. at West Englewood-Ashland State bank, 63d St. and Ashland Ave.

Englewood High School Notes.

The "Mock Trial," which was to have been presented by the Oracle on October 25, had to be postponed until Thursday, November 1. The cast wished to further perfect their offering before playing it before the school.

The cast of "Secret Service" is hard at work on their play. They are determined to make it the best play Englewood high school has ever seen. Watch for the dates of the performance.

Although hampered by weather conditions, last Saturday Englewood defeated Philips. Palmer was the hero of the game. He carried the ball over twice and kicked both goals. When the game was over it was hard to tell the two teams apart because of the fact that they were very mud-bedaubered. The team has an open date this Saturday, but it is practicing steadily for its next game.

Englewood's military boys have begun a classroom study of military science under their instructor, Lieutenant Anderson. They show much interest and enthusiasm in their new work. This course will prepare them for the war game which will take place next spring.

Many of the girls of the school are knitting for the Red Cross. As yet they have not been organized into a junior auxiliary of the Red Cross, but are working with the committee of the teachers, of which Miss Taylor is the chairman. They are turning in work to the downtown office as fast as they can. The boys "over there" will appreciate their work.

Skidoo!

"Even the hairs of a man's head are numbered." "They must have hung the 'Twenty-three sign' on mine," quoth the baldhead.

NATIONAL THEATRE

Virtue triumphs in the newest play of Edward E Rose, author of "The Rosary," "Little Lost Sister" and other successes, which bears the striking title of "The Little Girl That God Forgot." The production will be on view at the National, week of November 4.

Scene From "The Little Girl That God Forgot," All Next Week.

In writing "The Little Girl That God Forgot" Mr. Rose has written a melodrama, not like the old-school "thriller" but an up-to-the-minute story that is full of heart interest, has thrills galore and which entertains every minute it is being staged Nancy Barlow, a little girl who toils in a milliner shop is the heroine of "The Little Girl That God Forgot" She thinks she is forgotten because she is poor, but it is proven in the end that God forgets no one, for she is made extremely happy when she wins the man she loves. One of the reasons for the success of the plays of which Mr. Rose is the author is the fact that he peoples his plays with real human beings. In "The Little Girl That God Forgot" he has "the little girl," who is not unlike thousands of other girls employed in the big stores of a great city; a neighborly Irish woman, a brusque detective, an unafraid Alaskan, a hero whom any girl might prize, and three or four other interesting characters. John J Bernero, the producer of "The Little Girl That God Forgot," has given the play a handsome production. One of the scenes, representing a tenement house district, is an especially massive stage setting The Hull House of Chicago, made famous by Jane Addams, was the model for this impressive stage picture.

Surprised Justice.

In a New England town a local celebrity was brought up before the justice for stealing chickens. The prisoner was noted for never telling the truth when he could help it, and consequently there was general surprise when he pleaded guilty. It evidently staggered the justice. He rubbed his glasses and then scratched his head. "I guess—I'm afraid—well, Hiram," said he, after a thoughtful pause, "I guess I'll have to have more evidence before I sentence you."—Case and Comment.

Back and Kidneys Were in Bad Shape, But Doan's Removed all the Trouble.

"My kidneys were so weak that the least cold I caught would affect them and start my back aching until I could hardly endure the misery," says Mrs. D. C. Ross, 973 Fulton St., Brooklyn, N. Y. "In the morning when I first got up, my back was so lame, I could hardly bend over and any move sent darts of pain through my kidneys. It was hard for me to walk up stairs or stoop, and to move while lying down sent darts of pain through me.

MRS. ROSS

"The kidney secretions were scanty and distressing and the water remained in my system, making my feet and hands swell. There were dark circles under my eyes and I became so dizzy I could hardly see. I had rheumatic pains in my knees and it was all I could do to get around. For years I was in that shape and I wore plasters and used all kinds of medicine to no avail until I tried Doan's Kidney Pills. They rid me of the trouble and strengthened my back and kidneys. When I have taken Doan's since, they have always benefited me."

Kept Parents in Ignorance.

A kindly conspiracy kept an aged couple in ignorance of the fact that their son—an officer in the army—was facing the dreadful ordeal of being tried for murder, says a London correspondent. The parents live in a remote part of the country, and as they are not in very good health, they receive few visitors. The man's sisters established a censorship of all letters and papers coming into the house. Any letter that bore any reference to the trial was suppressed, while they were sometimes hard put to it to explain why the papers were so ruthlessly mutilated. During the process of the trial the man wrote letters home in which he pretended to be at the front. Eventually he was triumphantly acquitted, but the parents were kept in ignorance of even this fact, as it was feared the shock would have too great an effect upon them.

Should Make Soldiers Happy.

"When I was first admitted to the bar, I pictured myself as engaged in making impassioned addresses to juries," writes Emerson Hough. "Later I found that a lawyer had a great many things to do besides making impassioned addresses. We picture to ourselves a soldier as engaged always in the imminent deadly breach, his sword waving above his head. As a matter of fact, a soldier has to do a great many things besides wave his sword, has to eat, drink, smoke, play cards, sew on buttons, wash, shave—and read. The soldier who does not read is neither as good or as happy a soldier as he might and ought to be. It is our duty to make our soldiers not only good ones, but happy ones. Ergo, books, and plenty of them, for the boys at the front."

Doctors Raise Fees.

Doctors' fees are to be raised in London. Medical men in various districts have come to a common agreement, and the result that patients are being asked to pay more. Twenty-five per cent increase is the average.

LESSON FOR NOVEMBER 4

DEFEAT THROUGH DRUNKENNESS.

(World Temperance Sunday.)

LESSON TEXT—I Kings 20:1-21.
GOLDEN TEXT—Let not him that girdeth on his harness boast himself as he that putteth it off.—I Kings 20:11.

I. Samaria Besieged (vv. 1-12.)

1. By whom (v. 1.)

Benhadad, the Syrian king, accompanied by 32 kings, came against Samaria. These 32 kings were not allies, but rulers over the neighboring cities—vassal princes.

2. Benhadad's message to Ahab (vv. 2-6.)

He offered peace on the most abject and insulting terms. His demands meant more than the exaction of tribute. He over-reached himself in this; thus defeating his purpose. He not only demanded tribute money, but the surrender of that which was most vital to Ahab's manhood and self-respect—his wives and children. He thus made a thrust at his tenderest spot. Many a man has been thus aroused to do his duty, who otherwise would have submitted to shameful indignities.

3. Ahab's reply (vv. 4, 7-9.)

His reply was tame and humiliatingly submissive. Perhaps, he thought it only meant the giving of tribute, which he was willing to do in face of Benhadad's overwhelming army. Conciliatory measures were regarded as most prudent. But the peremptory demands of the enemy repeated, awoke Ahab to his senses, and caused him to call together the elders of the land, who counseled against submission. Thus stiffened for the opposition, Ahab refused to make full compliance with his demands.

4. Benhadad's bluster and boasting (v. 10.)

The design of this was to strike terror into the hearts of the king and people. He vows that he will make Samaria a heap of dust, and that this dust will not be sufficient to fill the hands of his army, so overwhelming is the number of his host.

5. Ahab's answer by a proverb (v. 11.)

"Let not him that girdeth on his harness boast himself as he that putteth it off." This is a proverb full of points for all boasters. God's purpose may overrule all man's proud presumptions. "Man proposes, but God disposes." "Pride goeth before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall."

6. Readiness for the attack (v. 12.)

In the full confidence of victory, the Syrian king was giving a banquet to his princes. In the midst of this feasting, the command was given to invade Samaria. Incited by strong drink, he gave no attention to the striking proverb of Ahab. Many have gone to ruin because through the stupor of drunkenness, they have failed to heed proper warnings.

II. A Prophet Sent to Ahab (vv. 13, 14.)

Who the prophet was, we are not told, but why he was sent, is made clear. He brought from God a promise of victory which was to cause Ahab to know Jehovah. It is a marvelous display of God's goodness and grace. Israel deserved the most severe chastisement, but God promised victory for his own sake in order to make his glory known. The agency by which the victory was to be achieved, was the young men, an agency purposely feeble, that the victory might be seen to be of God.

III. Ahab's Victory Over the Syrians (v. 15-21.)

The army of Ahab was but a handful compared with that of the Syrian king (v. 15; cf. v. 10). Benhadad, with confidence in his superior numbers, ordered the young men of Israel to be taken whether they came for peace or war. He, with his princes, continued their drunken debauch. The young men struck right and left, creating great consternation. When the seven thousand reserves joined the young men, a general panic was produced among the Syrians. From the human side, the victory is accounted for by the drunkenness of the Syrians, but from the divine side, we see that God wrought for his own glory. Ahab pursued the Syrians with a great slaughter, but Benhadad escaped. Many have been the defeats which have come through drunkenness; defeats in morals, defeats in religion, defeats in business, defeats in physical endurance. The man who indulges even moderately has reduced his opportunities of success very greatly. Most of the accidents by automobiles, railroads, etc., are traceable to the use of intoxicating liquors.

DEFINE CHRISTIAN EFFICIENC

It Is in Thinking and Doing as Christ Would Have Us Think and Do.

Sometimes a word becomes so overworked that the idea back of the word suffers because of the place that the word comes to hold as one to be rather avoided. Efficiency, as a word, has been so freely used that it is not strange that one should seek to avoid it in his vocabulary if he can think of anything else in its place. But the chief trouble is in losing track of the idea, while we are trying to find a substitute for the word. Christian efficiency is not cold-blooded calculating mechanism. It is simply thinking and doing as Christ would have us think and do. That idea no word ought ever to obscure. The most efficient Christian is one through whom Christ can work with the least friction and the least change of Christ's plans. If we like slipshod ways, it may bring us to our senses to realize that they are not Christ's ways.—Sunday School Times.

MOTHERS

Prepare for Trouble!

When a girl becomes a woman, when a woman becomes a mother, and when a woman passes through the changes of middle life, are the three periods of life when health and strength are most needed to withstand the pain and distress often caused by severe organic disturbances.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a non-alcoholic remedy that any ailing woman can safely take because it is prepared from roots and herbs with pure glycerine, containing tonic properties of the most pronounced character.

Get Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription from your druggist, in either liquid or tablet form, or send 10 cents to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel Buffalo, N.Y., for trial package. Large package 60 cents.

QUINCY, ILLS.—"When my daughter was just coming into womanhood she got her feet wet and caught a severe cold. This caused her much trouble. She doctored but did not get any better. Some of my friends told me to give her Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it did her more good than all the doctoring. I can recommend this medicine as being good for girls at that time of life."—MRS. LOUISE BECKER, 228 S. 8th Street.

QUINCY, ILLS.—"A few years ago I developed a severe case of woman's weakness. I would have backaches and pains in my side. I can't begin to tell how miserable I was or how I suffered. I tried everything I could hear of in the way of medicine, with little relief. At last I heard of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It was only necessary for me to take two bottles to completely cure me of this ailment. I am glad to give testimony recommending 'Favorite Prescription.'"—MRS. JOHN AUGUSTIN, 839 S. Sixth Street.

Magnetism in the Wilds.

Fish stories are supposed to be unique as stretchers of the imagination, but none beats the story told by a member of the British commission to the United States.

It seems that one of his acquaintances—a traveler of some note—had sold a farm to an Irishman, and the latter was complaining because there were no birds about the place.

"Set some traps," suggested the former owner, "and they will come."

"Shure an' will they come thin?"

"Yes. I was once in Africa, and there wasn't a woman, I had been told, within 200 miles. I wanted one to cook and keep house. So I hung a pair of earrings, a bracelet and some sundry buttons on a tree, and the next morning I found five applicants under the branches."

As a result of two and a half years of treating paretics in the New Jersey State hospital with salvarsan, neosalvarsan and albuminate of mercury injected into the spinal cord, Drs. Britton D. Evans and Frederick H. Thorne report to the Medical Journal that this method has little or no value.

Peculiarities of the Hen

"Hens are funny creatures, observes a poultry fancier. "They have their likes and dislikes—especially dislikes. If you move a hen she turns crusty, and won't lay eggs. She likes her old home, and takes an abominable time to get used to the new.

"If you wave a cloth within sight of the occupants of your fowl run you will hear a shocking row. This particular noise is known as the 'danger signal,' and sometime will be indulged in without a single break for as long as twenty minutes.

"If you take it into your head to rearrange the nest-boxes, depend upon it Biddy will pay you out. She will miss that day with her usual egg.

"Provided they are good, it's wisest to stick to old things in poultry-keeping, and not shift them unless you are compelled to do so. At least, there's one thing you can change, and that's the fodder. Hens won't object to that at all; in fact, they like it."

Couldn't Be Beaten.

The other week a country woman went into a small market town in the North to do some shopping, says Pearson's Weekly.

After making several purchases she came to a grocer and provision merchant's shop, in window of which she saw some nice looking eggs.

She went into the shop and asked the grocer if they were good and fresh eggs.

"Yes, ma'am," said the grocer; "they cannot be beaten."

"Oh," cried the old woman, "they're nae use tae me if they canna be beaten, as I want them for oor Jock's puddin'."

OLD PRESCRIPTION FOR WEAK KIDNEYS

A medicinal preparation like Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, that has real curative value almost sells itself. Like an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been benefited to those who are in need of it.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is a physician's prescription. It has been tested for years and has brought results to countless numbers who have suffered.

The success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact that it fulfills almost every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder diseases, corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Adv.

HOW HE SAW THE BALL GAME

Man Carted Dry Goods Box and Brass Kettle to Grounds to Prevent Repetition of Injuries.

"I am a cautious man," said Mr. Slowboy, "and rarely place myself in danger without taking great precautions," and he lifted out of his wagon a dry goods box and a brass kettle. "I came out here to see a match three weeks ago," the old man explained, "and during the game a red hot ball, right from the bat, struck me like a cannon ball between the eyes bent my spectacles down, broke both glasses, disarranged by ideas, obstructed my view of the game and knocked me down. Then the catcher and shortstop ran together and stood on me, and jumped to catch the ball, and when they came down they both kicked me for getting in the way and making them miss the ball. And now I have brought along this dry goods box to sit on and this brass kettle to wear on my head."

And, placidly, safely, but a little warm withal, he saw the game clear through.—Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.

Speaking of country life, I tried it once on a summer vacation. The first week I was there the farmer's cow died and we had beef all week, the next week his pet calf died and we had veal all week; the next week his wife died and I moved. I didn't want to take any chances.

"Oh Lord," was the fervent prayer of a southern negro. "Oh, Lord ,send a turkey to dis po' ole darky." But he prayed in vain. Christmas was coming and he grew desperate. "Oh, Lord," he prayed again, with increasing fervor, "Oh, Lord, send dis po' ole darky to a turkey." And that very night his prayer was answered.

Casey entered a store with a dog, and an Irishman asked what breed it was. Insolently the owner looked the questioner up and down, and then replied with a drawl: "It's a cross between an ape and an Irishman." "Faith, thin, we're both related to the beast," was the Irishman's quick retort.

"Visitors, I suppose, bother you a good deal, sir?" said a reporter to a famous statesman. "I have no fewer than sixty visitors a day," the statesman replied. "Of these sixty, thirty on an average I must see." "How do you get rid of them quick enough? How, without offending them, do you show them that it is time to go?" inquired the reporter. "My secretary," said the statesman, "comes to me when the time limit has expired, and tells me very audibly that my wife wishes to see me." "Ha, ha, ha," laughed the reporter, "I suppose now—" But just then the secretary entered and said: "Your wife, sir, wishes to see you."

A burly negro who registered in one of the Fourth ward precincts of Oklahoma City was anxious to escape military service. Someone had evidently told him of some of the things that would exempt him. The questions and answers on his card were as follows: "How old are you?" "Ah's most thutty-one." "When were you born?" "Ah don' 'zackly remember, boss." "Are you a natural-born citizen?" "Ah don' think so." "Were you born in the United States?" "No, sir. Ah was born in Texas." "Have you anyone dependent on you?" "Yes, sir." "Who are they?" "Ah don' rightly know, sir. Ah's got lots of relations."

The proprietor of a new restaurant, with a view of attracting customers, hung out a sign which read: "When you wish to dine, you cannot do better than patronize me." Two students, returning home in the small hours of the morning, saw this announcement, and determined to have some fun. One stood on the other's shoulders and detached the sign. They next proceeded to touch up the lettering, and conveyed it to the other end of the road, where a ruby lamp indicated the residence of a doctor. To this lamp they attached their burden and departed on their way rejoicing. When the doctor came downstairs in the morning he was astonished to find a grinning crowd gathered around the gateway. Angrily looking for the cause, his eye fell upon the sign: "When you wish to die, you cannot do better than patronize me."

Doctor White to Lecture on Great Britain.

Sunday evening at the People's Liberal church, 65th St. and Stewart Ave., Doctor White will deliver his handsomely illustrated lecture on "Great Britain—the Mistress of the Seas." This is one of Doctor White's latest and best lectures. He will give a resume of what led Britain into the war, a description of her naval possibilities and power, and why it is necessary that she should maintain her supremacy. Doctor White has spent so much time in Great Britain, and under such favorable circumstances that he is eminently fitted to speak on this subject, and we advise everyone who desires authentic information on this subject to hear him Sunday night. The admission to these lectures is free, and everyone is invited. In the morning his timely subject will be, "The Sin of Wastefulness," and at this special time in our national life no fitter subject could be selected, and no better speaker chosen to speak on the important matter of conservation of everything. Mrs. Sorenson will be the soloist, and an organ recital will precede the lecture and morning service.

Parker Elementary Parent-Teachers' Association.

The regular meeting of the Parent-Teachers' association of the Parker elementary and high schools will be held Wednesday, November 7, at 2:30 p. m., at Normal school auditorium. A symposium of subjects will be discussed by the parents and teachers, pertaining to greater efficiency in school, viz: homework, punctuality, responsibility, courtesy and efficiency. Miss Fallon will explain the work done by the Junior Red Cross society. Refreshments will be served. Come and bring your friends. Mrs. Charles Blodgett, president. Mrs. P. C. W. Johannes, press.

Englewood High School Parent-Teacher Association.

On Tuesday, November 8th, at 2:30 P. M., the Englewood High School Parent-Teacher Association will hold its next meet. At the close of the interesting meeting in October the parents were invited to remain and listen to a program arranged by the school for the freshmen class. Mrs. W. S. Hefferan is the speaker this month, and the music will be furnished by the school. All parents and friends are urged to attend.

Hamilton Park Woman's Club.

The meeting on next Tuesday will be in charge of the art and literature department, Mrs. G. H. Nash, chairman. Miss Mae Lewis will conduct the study period. Subject, "Lyric Diction." At 2:30 o'clock a program including a play, pianologues and vaudeville stunts by members of the club will be presented under the direction of Miss Esther Mayes.

Opera Talk by Henrietta Weber in the Morning—The Afternoon Session to Hear Edwin Markham, Author of "The Man With the Hoe"—Club Chorus to Sing.

The morning program of the literature department was given Monday, the 29th, by Miss Ella J. Abeel, who was introduced by the leader, Mrs. George Hunt.

Miss Abeel's subject was carefully given. The subject, "Rabindranath Tagore Ovet of Morality," was somewhat difficult to comprehend and to appreciate as one should, without some preparation in advance on the part of the listener. However, Miss Abeel did full justice to this work.

She questioned whether this poet would fit into our present state of mind, with our intensely national feeling, because he speaks for the future, which represents internationalism and love for all.

He was a great spiritual teacher of the world, taught the eminence of God, not as a doctrine but as a reality for every living soul.

Miss Abeel read a number of poems in conclusion.

Mrs. Charles Leigh called for reports, which were given by Mrs. Frank G. Banister for the dramatic committee, who announced a public speaking course to be conducted by one of the club members, Mrs. Samson. Meetings to be held every Monday at ten o'clock in the clubroom.

Mrs. James Wishart spoke for the extension committee, stating that arrangements are being made to take the children of the members to the Art Institute every Saturday.

Mrs. R. Maynard Reed again presided at the afternoon meeting, which convened at two o'clock. Mrs. Reed is the very capable first vice president and is doing "her bit" splendidly in the absence of the president, Mrs. Charles Clark, who is now on the road to recovery.

Prior to the reading of the report by Mrs. Frederick Nichols, secretary, "America" was sung patriotically by the ensemble and, in spite of the weeping elements, many were in attendance that afternoon.

Announcements were made by the chairmen of the committees.

The principal feature now in view is women's registration week, beginning November 5. A house-to-house canvas will be made. Registration headquarters will be at the Congregational church, 61th St. and Harvard Ave. This was only being done in the 32nd ward. Other wards having their registration stations instead of the canvass.

Mrs. Henry Hathaway is always inspiring in her Red Cross news. She is an enthusiastic worker, and likewise her many co-workers. She announced a concert to be given November 15 at the Marlowe theatre by musicians of the Great Lakes Training station for the benefit of those now in training. Many will not be able to spend Christmas at home and part of the proceeds are for those who must spend that time here; the remainder will be used for purchasing material for Red Cross work. This will be a worthy affair to patronize and prove that Englewood is not lying dormant.

Milan Lusk, violinist, was heard to advantage in several numbers. He possesses a rich tone, sincere musical feeling and the songlike quality in his Spanish number was conspicuous in melodious passages. The accompaniments of Miss Eloise Bedlan merit high praise.

Previous to Mr. Lusk's numbers he gave an interesting sketch of his four years' experience in in Austra and vicinity, when he was actively engaged in Red Cross work with the aid of his violin.

He informed us that lard was in that country worth $1.20 per pound; meat, 80 cents per pound, and eggs, 80 cents apiece (gasps from the audience).

Mrs. Reed then introduced Mme. Victor Horta, who is now on a lecture tour for the benefit of the Belgium people.

It was a stereopticon lecture and very depressing at times, for our hearts went out to those seemingly innocent people who were so wickedly treated by their neighboring countrymen. Mme. Horta was a most pleasing personage and deserves much credit for this noble work.

Next Monday morning the music department will have its first meeting of the year. An "Opera Talk" will be given by Henrietta Weber. In the afternoon Edwin Markham, author of "The Man With the Hoe," will be the guest and speaker and the club chorus will sing under the leadership of Mrs. Fitch.

On Thursday evening, November 6, Dr. Max Eastman will address the club on "What Is Humor, and Why?" Rose Lutiger Gannon will be soloist and "Our Gentlemen" will be the guests of honor. Mrs. Hugo E. Otto will be hostess.

Visiting Nurse Guild.

The annual meeting of the Visiting Nurse guild met with Mrs. Stahl, 6812 Lafayette Ave., October 17. The members, nurses and guests rejoiced to count 2,195 finished garments and pieces: warm things to cuddle wee babies, clothes to assist little tots from six to eight years of age to keep warm in school, and quilts to cover the sick and aged with. "Ye have administered unto humanity from young babies to old age. Ye have done well," Mrs. George Higginson, Jr., publicity committee Visiting Nurse association, gave praise and encouragement to the guild workers with a spirited talk on the great help the guild was to the nurse in her hard task. Miss Petules, a nurse, carried the ladies with her into the haunts of sickness and misery; through her own experience and with pictures of her charges, and was overjoyed at the smiles the nice soft garments would leave on the worn faces of her charges this winter. Mrs. Burton Hanson, president of the four divisions of the South side, encouraged the workers with a few remarks and a check for future use. The following were elected to serve the guild this coming year: President, Mrs. Stahl; vice president, Mrs. W. Smith; secretary, Mrs. F. F. Montgomery; treasurer, Mrs. John McCullock. Regrets were expressed that Mrs. Goodell, who had served so faithfully and well, was not able to continue with the work. A social hour followed, with refreshments.

Woman's Affections Infinite.

What I most prize in woman is her affections, not her intellect. The intellect is finite, but the affections are infinite and cannot be exhausted.—Longfellow

The Englewood Sunday Evening Club.

It was a record-breaking audience indeed that assembled last Sunday evening to listen to Lieutenant Bowman's exceedingly interesting story of his experience as a member of the American field service in France. The personality of the speaker, the pictures and souvenirs he brought with him, and the many little intimate touches he was able to impart, all combined to make very real the struggle in which we are just beginning to take our part. Our only regret is that we were obliged to turn away between 400 and 500 persons who arrived after the house had been filled to its uttermost capacity.

Our program next Sunday evening will be no less interesting, for we are to have as our guest and speaker Prof. B. R. Baumgardt, who registers from Los Angeles, but who is in reality a citizen of the world. Mr. Baumgardt was born in Liverpool, England, of English and Swedish extraction, was educated in Sweden, and graduated from Strengnas college there, specializing in history, astronomy and mathematics.

B. R. Baumgardt, Lecturer on Educational Travel. The Wonders of the Heavens and The History of Civilization; one of the best known speakers on the lecture platform, whose audiences aggregate over a quarter million annually.

Professor Baumgardt has been asked to repeat the lecture he gave us about three years ago, "An Evening With the Stars," for the benefit of those who did not hear him at that time.

It is remarkable that in our public and private schools today little or nothing is taught of astronomy. Three thousand years ago the shepherds of Chaldes, while watching their flocks under their cloudless skies, had obtained a far better knowledge of the starry heavens than the average modern college-bred man. By the stars they were able to regulate their husbandry and find their way. These shepherd astronomers knew from experience that eclipses repeated themselves every 18 years, 11 days and 8 hours. Today eclipses can be calculated in advance with such precision that for the one of August 23 in the year 2044 we might set our instruments now, with the full assurance that the eclipse would begin within a few seconds of the predicted time.

We therefore invite those who have not heard Professor Baumgardt to meet with us next Sunday evening and enjoy his wonderful story of the stars, and also those who have heard him are urged to come and learn more of this fascinating subject under the guidance of one who speaks with authority.

The soloist of the evening will be Master William Crockett, soprano. Remember that the doors open at 6:45 o'clock, the organ recital is at 7:15, and our service begins promptly at 7:30. Come early and you will not be disappointed as so many have been when they found the doors had been closed.

Gala Night at St. Bernard's.

Last Wednesday evening was a gala night at St. Bernard's hall, where the patriotic pageant and style show was staged by the ladies of St. Bernard's parish, and as a result $150 was added to the bazaar fund for decorating interior of St. Bernard's church. In the opening pageant, Miss Chic led in singing, "The Star Spangled Banner." Liberty with lighted torch made a poetic appeal for her bonds and was supported by Uncle Sam and George Washington in the tableaux, all being an appeal to save the flag, which is threatened.

The soldier rallying to the call of his brothers gone before, the Red Cross nurse, the Union jackie, the Yankee Doodle girl dancer, the latest Parisian favorite, showing how Paris girls are entertaining our American Sammies. Little Curtis Watts gave the salute and pledge to the flag. The official conservation uniform worn now by Mrs. Woodrow Wilson and those who sign the card pledging aid, was displayed by Mrs. C. Burleman with her market basket, who also recited original lines.

Mamselle Rosa, from Paris, told of latest fashions, and used our beautiful Englewood maids, matrons and men to display them in artistic dances and singing.

Rainbow wedding in grand array, movies, vaudeville and styles staged by beauties all smiles. The most wonderful show of the day. Mrs. Edw. McLoughlin arranged and directed the splendid program, which had many original features. Following are some of many who took parts:

Miss Anna O'Malley, Miss Nellie Bell, Miss Lorence McLoughlin, Ad Clare, Helen Hefferan, Mary Bransfield, Margaret Delaney, Sara Byrne, Dorothy Carl, Norine Mulvihil, Catherine Duns, Ileen Hoey, Edna Larkin, Alice Fornicarle, Antoinette Andren, Eleanor Hennessy, Rose McConeskey, Angie Scabardine, Ella Berg, Lucile Jacques, Josephine North, Loretta Hanlon, Eleanor Byrne, Marie Carter, Margaret Hanna, Bernie Hanlon, L. A NEW NATIONAL BANK

THE MUTUAL NATIONAL BANK OF CHICAGO WILL OPEN NOVEMBER 15.

The Mutual National bank is having the rooms at 7829-31 South Halsted St. fitted up in elegant shape and will be open for business by November 15. This bank is under United States government supervision, and a member of the federal reserve system, has a capital of $200,000 and surplus of $25,000. The officers of the institution is enough to inspirt confidence, as no more substantial group of bankers could be selected in the city who have made records as substantial, enterprising yet conservative business men, and who are known to the people of this locality without formal introduction.

President, Louis Rathje; vice presidents, Henry G. Lauerman and Andrew W. Harper, and Fred H. Korthauer, cashier. This group with Frank C. Rathje, Louis Pascal, Samuel Inlander, S. S. McDonald, Henry F. Fischer, Arthur C. Kussman, Olof Olson and Dr. John G. Craig constitutes the board of directors, all of whom will be recalled as among our most substantial business men.

Fred H. Korthauer, the cashier, has been with the Chicago City Bank and Trust company for nearly twenty years and for the past five years has been the assistant cashier. He is a suave, polished gentleman as well as a hustling business man, well posted especially on local banking and credit affairs, and is a very wise selection.

The list of stockholders is as follows:

Dr. F. T. Avery, Fred H. Anson, E. E. Adamson, Norma Adamson, Norma T. Adamson, Gus E. Anderson, W. F. Blackford, Simon Bodenheimer, Dr. A. J. A. Bachmann, Robert E. L. Brooks, Henry Blum, Jr., E. G. Wesemann, Christ P. Zacher.

The Mutual National bank starts with unusual facilities to do the banking business of this community. While conservative to the limit of absolute safety, their management will be found liberal and accommodating in all real business matters, and they extend a cordial invitation to their friends and neighbors to call on them and see their handsome quarters as well as become acquainted with their officers, directors and stockholders.

An informal reception will be held at the bank the first week of their opening when they hope to entertain all who call.

Dear Friend:

Do you realize that you cannot get an increase in salary until you earn it? And that you cannot advance very much without TRAINING IN SPECIAL LINES? The high-salaried men are not paid merely for what they do, but for what they KNOW.

Improve yourself by taking a business or a shorthand course with us evenings, if you cannot attend days.

Our calls for competent help are greater than we can fill.

Yours for success,
